

Remembering Eva

“Eva was one of a kind and was one of the finest people with whom I’ve ever had a chance to work with.”

- Governor Chris Gregoire

Washington State recently lost an incredible advocate for charity when former Human Resources Director Eva Santos lost her battle with breast cancer. Eva was an enormous supporter of the Combined Fund Drive, and we would like to celebrate her life with a special campaign dedicated to breast cancer prevention and research.

From December 17th (Eva’s Birthday) to the 28th, you can make a contribution in Eva’s name with your credit card. Proceeds will be split between the following charities:

To donate today, simply visit:
